

El Supremo Cabernet Sauvignon

In 1959, Rufino Pablo Baggio founded his company, RPB SA, in the city of Gualaguaychu, located in the Entre Rios province. From the beginning, producing great Argentinean wine was his focus. The growth of different markets throughout Argentinean market led to the building of the first production plant in Gualaguaychu in 1983 (now in Mendoza). Since then this family wine passion has been passed on from one generation to the next. El Supremo is the family pride and joy- a bold and expressive adventure that measures up to its Argentinean legacy.
